

Two Sides Facts

Environmental Non-Governmental Organizations (ENGO) Paper-Related Programs and Campaigns

A variety of environmental non-governmental organizations (ENGO) have initiated programs and campaigns to reduce the environmental impacts of paper production and use. While Two Sides' shares their desire to promote responsible paper production, use and recycling, we have fundamental disagreements with many ENGO positions on paper-related issues. We present this list of ENGO websites as a directory only, not as an endorsement of any content. The descriptions provided are from the organizations' websites.

Chlorine Free Products Association

The Chlorine Free Products Association (CFPA) is an independent not-for-profit accreditation & standard setting organization, incorporated in the state of Illinois. The primary purpose of the association is to promote Total Chlorine Free policies, programs, and technologies throughout the world.

Climate for Ideas

Climate for Ideas.org conducts research on environmental issues in order to advance sound science and sound policy for companies, governments and non-governmental organizations. It focuses on the nexus of climate and forests, biodiversity conservation in forests, the paper industry and markets for wood and paper products.

Conservatree

Conservatree is a project of Social and Environmental Entrepreneurs (SEE). SEE creates working relationships with activists that facilitate projects that are charitable in nature.

Dogwood Alliance

Dogwood Alliance calls attention to both damaging practices and new solutions in sustainable forestry. We mobilize the public and expose the truth about forest destruction to inspire individuals, communities, corporations, and government to take action.

Environmental Defense Fund

Environmental Defense Fund's mission is to preserve the natural systems on which all life depends. Guided by science, we design and transform markets to bring lasting solutions to the most serious environmental problems.

Environmental Paper Network

EPN is a network of non-profit organizations working together to accelerate social and environmental transformation in the paper industry.

ForestEthics

ForestEthics is a non-profit environmental organization in Canada and the United States. Our mission is to protect Endangered forests and wild places, wildlife, and human well-being. Climate change, which threatens to undermine all of our conservation efforts, is also one of our campaign focus areas.

Grassroots Recycling Network

GRRN has a vision of the world where waste is not waste – it is a resource. We are the voice of all those who recycle and want to waste less and do more. GRRN is the leading voice calling for Zero Waste (ZW) in the United States by promoting the message

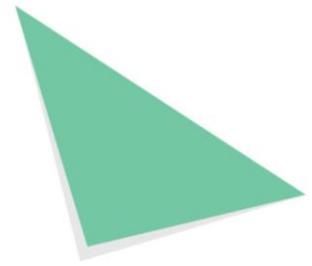

Two Sides U.S. Inc.
401 North Michigan Avenue, Suite 2200
Chicago IL 60611
T: 855-896-7433
E: pnr@twosides.info

Print and Paper have a great environmental story to tell

www.twosides.us

Two Sides Facts

that we must go “beyond recycling” and go upstream to the headwaters of the waste stream which is the industrial designer’s desk.

Green America

Green America’s mission is to harness economic power—the strength of consumers, investors, businesses, and the marketplace—to create a socially just and environmentally sustainable society.

Green Press Initiative

Green Press Initiative is committed to advancing sustainable patterns of production and consumption within the U.S. book and newspaper industries and within the paper industry at large. GPI also advances policy innovations related to paper and climate change and recycling and incubates pioneering new strategies for market transformation.

Greenpeace USA

Greenpeace is an independent, nonprofit, global campaigning organization that uses non-violent, creative confrontation to expose global environmental problems and their causes. Greenpeace’s goal is to ensure the ability of Earth to nurture life in all its diversity.

National Wildlife Federation

The National Wildlife Federation works to inspire Americans to protect wildlife for our children's future. We protect and defend wildlife and the wild places they need to survive. We work to restore the health of our natural habitats and ecosystems. And we educate and inspire Americans to care for and protect our natural heritage.

Natural Resources Council of Maine

The Natural Resources Council of Maine is a nonprofit membership organization protecting, restoring, and conserving Maine's environment, now and for future generations.

Natural Resources Defense Council

NRDC mission is to safeguard the Earth: its people, its plants and animals and the natural systems on which all life depends.

RAN

Rainforest Action Network campaigns for the forests, their inhabitants and the natural systems that sustain life by transforming the global marketplace through education, grassroots organizing and non-violent direct action.

WWF-US

WWF’s mission is to conserve nature and reduce the most pressing threats to the diversity of life on Earth.

